

COMMENDATIONS REPORT FOR JUNE 2006

Employee	Commendation
Jeff Cunningham, Peter Horvath, Keith Miller, Troy Olmsted, Christian Pedersen, Eric Peterson, Pct. 3	Sgt. Joe Bauer of the Seattle Police Department wrote a letter of appreciation regarding the actions of these deputies. He stated that they were professional, courteous, and serious about the call he made regarding a juvenile disturbance that was quickly turning to a violent situation. They did not know he was an off-duty SPD sergeant, and he was impressed with how they controlled the situation, methodically sorted out the details, and made the proper arrests.
Steve McCafferty, Pct. 3	Two King County residents who were involved in a car accident wrote to thank Deputy McCafferty for his professional, respectful, and kind manner in handling their accident and controlling what they saw as a chaotic and traumatic situation.
Joe Gagliardi, Pct. 4	A Highline Medical Center Administrator wrote to Sheriff Rahr complimenting Deputy Gagliardi for his compassion and assistance when he took the time to help a disabled patient get from one medical building to the next on their campus. They were pleased that he immediately offered his assistance and graciously helped solve the problem.
W. Brent Naylor, Special Operations	Idaho State Representative Shirley McKague and her granddaughter were driving on a road in King County when they got a flat tire. Deputy Naylor happened to drive by, stopped, and changed their tire. He was friendly and professional, and made them both feel very grateful that he came by.
